

Curriculum Vitae for Malvin Coleman Driver, Jr. MD

Education:

Memphis State University: BS 1967
(Memphis, Tennessee)

University of Arkansas: MS 1969
(Little Rock, Arkansas)

University of Arkansas: MD 1973
(Little Rock, Arkansas)

University of South Florida Ophthalmology Residency / 1976 Chief: Bill Edwards MD, Assistant: Bill Layden MD
(Tampa, Florida)

Good Samaritan Medical Center: Retina/Vitreous Fellowship/ 1977 Chief: Richard Chenoweth MD, Assistant Mike Klein MD
(Portland, Oregon)

Certified American Board of Ophthalmology: 1977

Work History:

Founder and President of Austin Retina Associates: 1977-2006 (sold practice and semi-retired)
(Austin, Texas)

Founder and Owner of Angelo Retina Associates: 2006-2010 (sold practice and semi-retired)
(San Angelo, Texas)

Founder and Owner of Castle Hills Eye Specialists: 2016- present

Part- time retina provider of Ophthalmology Associates of San Antonio: 2010-2014
(San Antonio, Texas)

Part- time and full time Physician for the South Texas Veterans Healthcare System (Chief of Retina Services): 2013 to 2016
(San Antonio, Texas)

Part-time Reader for Digital Healthcare (Telemedicine Company): 2008 to 2017 (Company Closed)

Texas Board of Medical Examiners Consultant: 2012- Current
(Austin, Texas)

Locums tenens: Shah Eye Center: January 2018 to Present

Clinical Professor of Ophthalmology UTSA: 1978-2005 and current volunteer position

Organizations: The American Society of Retina Specialists- 1987- Current (Vitreous society)

AAO: Fellow since 1978 and current Life fellow.

Texas Ophthalmological Association: 1977 to present
Past President (1990)
Board of Directors: 13 years. (1980 - 1993)